incidents of dowry deaths in the country;

(b) if so, the number of newly-wed women who have been killed in the Capital and in the Union Territories during the last one year; and

(c) what steps are being taken by Government to save the lives of newly-wed women in the country?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI BUTA SINGH): (a) As per available information the number of cases registered as dowry deaths during the years 1986 and 1987 was 1319 and 1418 respectively.

(b) 10 cases of murder for dowry were reported in Delhi and one in Chandigarh during the year, 1987.

(c) The registration, investigation and prevention of crimes fall within the purview of the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations. However, the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 has been amended to make the law regarding offences against women stringent. The Indian Penal Code, the Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 and Indian Evidence Act, 1872 have also been amended to deal effectively not only with dowry death cases but also with cases of cruelty to married women.
